November Knits: Inspired Designs for Changing Seasons By Kate Gagnon Osborn, Courtney Kelley

Fall is an ever-popular season for knitters, and with November Knits you can knit warm and stylish garments and accessories to make the season a little cozier. Popular knit designers and authors, Courtney Kelley and Kate Gagnon Osborn, join forces with all-star contributors, including Melissa LaBarre, Cirilia Rose, Cecily Glowik McDonald, Kristen TenDyke, and many more.

Capture the essence of fall with 23 projects that range from casual cardigans and scarves to sweet, stylish wraps and sweaters. The book is divided into three moods:

- Farm Hands is the most casual design section, filled with rustic and durable garments to shield you through afternoons of brisk winds.
- Ivy League focuses on sophisticated and smart knitwear, featuring bold colors and classic styling.
- Southern Comfort is ideal for holidays and special occasions that call for slightly dressier garments, featuring elegant knitted lace.

With knitted garments and accessories by expert designers, November Knits is a must-have resource this year.

Editorial Review

From Booklist

Many knitting books have a few good patterns, but in this one, with almost every turn of a page, crafters will find something that makes them want to pick up the needles. The premise is a bit convoluted. The title “evokes the essence of fall and early winter,” but the projects offered in three chapters—“Farm Hands” (rustic yet stylish), “Ivy League” (classic New England), “Southern Comfort” (feminine and decorative)—don’t always seem to support the theme. That said, each project gets a lovely introduction, and the sweaters, scarves, socks, hats, and mittens are on display in crisply colored photographs, and some are helpfully photographed from different angles. The instructions are clear, and the schematics usefully placed. There’s bang for the buck here with more than 20 projects, all by up-and-coming designers, and all delightfully profiled. Knitters will return to this one again and again. --Ilene Cooper
