Editorial Review

Review

"When the local Church sets priorities, youth ministry nearly always rises to the top. But the solution we seem to land on generally results in a whirlwind of activities with no clear direction, offered in a dingy room, put on by someone who is too often burned out within a year and looking for 'a real job.' Youth ministry done this way is rarely taken seriously because, let's face it, it's rarely successful. Christopher Wesley offers refreshing clarity in the midst of this craziness. In a word, he offers great vision for a ministry the Church so often gets wrong, but really can't afford to." --Chris Stefanick, Founder and president of Real Life Catholic

"What I love about Chris Wesley is that this book isn't simply theory--he knows what he's doing and he has shared his simple and practical tools to help us build a dynamic and more effective youth ministry for our churches. This book is a gift!" --Doug Fields, Author of Purpose Driven Youth Ministry

"Chris Wesley has put together an inspiring, affirming, challenging, and encouraging book that is a must-read for anyone involved in youth ministry. Chris's love for both youth and youth workers oozes from the pages of this great book." --Clayton Imoo, Director, Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry, Archdiocese of Vancouver

"Christopher Wesley provides clarity and insight into the exciting and tumultuous life and work of a person called to youth ministry. With humor and honesty, he helps shed light on the countless challenges we face and how best to form the vision each ministry program needs to be truly successful. This book should be in the hands of every person working with youth, whether a rookie or veteran!" --Katie Prejean, Youth Director, Our Lady Queen of Heaven Parish, Lake Charles, Louisiana
