About the Author

Victor Klemperer (1881-1960), a front-line veteran of the First World War, became professor of French literature at Dresden University. A Jew, he was taken from his university post in 1935 and only survived thanks to his marriage to an Aryan. From 1933 to 1945 he kept detailed diaries, now in the course of publication, which contain, in note form, some of the raw material for LTI.
