Unit 20: Bartlett School of Architecture By Marcos Cuz, Salvador Pérez Arrollo

This book is a compendium of the projects by Unit20 students from the Bartlett School of Architecture in London, one of the world's top and most experimental architecture schools. The unit is directed by Salvador Pérez Arroyo and Marcos Cruz, who have been working together on it for three years. The projects, which are published with the collaboration of the architecture school of the Universidad Politécnica of Valencia, are of great experimental value and have been developed with very precise models and large-scale computer drawings. Each project is explained at length and in detail. The book covers the three years of work on themes such as: growth, micromachines, prostheses and nanotechnology.
