Froggy se viste (Spanish Edition) By Jonathan London

Vestirse para ir a retozar en la nieve no es tan fácil como parece . . . especialmente para una ranita que no está acostumbrada a salir en invierno. Hay que ponerse botas, gorra con orejeras, guantes, bufanda, camisa, chaqueta, pantalones . . . ¿Llegará Froggy alguna vez a ponerse todo?

Los niños de todas las edades se deleitarán con el pegadizo ritmo del texto y apaudirán con entusiasmo a esta olvidadiza y divertida ranita en sus esfuerzos por aprender una tarea común a todos los niños pequeños.

Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

PreSchool-Grade 1. Froggy wakes from hibernation in the middle of the winter. Despite his mother's urgings to go back to sleep, he is determined to go out and play. He puts on different articles of clothing, each with its own fun sound effect. Each time he ventures out, his mother reminds him that he has forgotten something, prompting him to go back inside, undress, and start again. He becomes so exhausted that he decides it is easier to just stay asleep. This story is just as hilarious in Spanish as it is in English. Storytellers will enjoy making sounds that will encourage young listeners to participate in the telling. The cartoonlike illustrations and funny facial expressions make this a wonderful read-aloud.
