The Chronography of George Synkellos By George Synkellos, Paul Tuffin

George Synkellos, a monk of Constantinople who once held a position of authority under the patriarch Tarasios, composed (in Greek) a chronicle of universal history in the early ninth century. Beginning with the creation of the universe, the chronicle preserves a rich collection of ancient sources, many of them otherwise unknown. The English translation provided here, together with introduction and notes, promises to make this influential and wide-ranging history more accessible to Byzantinists, students of ancient historiography, and specialists in biblical chronology, early Judaism, Egypt, and the Ancient Near East.

Editorial Review

Review

"Adler and Tuffin have produced a well-designed annotated translation...This volume is a valuable source and contribution to understanding the history of scholarship as well as Late Antique and Byzantine perspectives and the limits of their knowledge of the history of the ancient Near East."

-Journal of Near Eastern Studies
