Editorial Review

About the Author

Ellen Stagg began her photography career in 1994, when she discovered her love for the medium in a high school art class. While still in high school, she began showing her first black and white photos in small art galleries in Connecticut, in 1996 she moved to New York City to receive her BFA in photography at the School of Visual Arts. By the end of her junior year at SVA, she'd signed with her first agent, setting her on the path to pursue a career in commercial photography. Though Stagg found success in the world of commercial photography, her true passion always lay with the ero-tic.

After years of struggling to connect with models who would understand her vision, Stagg met Justine Joli in 2005; the award winning adult actress quickly became Stagg's muse. Through Joli, Stagg was able to connect to other women from the industry. Stagg found it easy to create nude art with these "pros;" and started her own website. This site brought clients such as Pent-house, Play-boy, a documentary on I-FC.com, art shows around the world and more.

Introduction:

Ellen Stagg is one of the most well-known American nude photographers. Her passion for photography began in high school, and already during her junior year of college she signed with her first agent. Though she began working successfully in the world of commercial photography, Stagg soon realized her main passion was in erotic photography. It wasn't until she met actress Justine Joli, in 2005, that she had a true outlet in which to practice and grow her vision within her beloved art form. Her collaboration with Joli was the jumpstart to a lustrous career in erotic photography that would include features in top publications such as Play-boy and Pent-house.

Stagg has now put together a unique anthology of her best nude shots captured over the last 20 years. Over 60 well-known models are featured in her collection from Justine Joli and Heather Vandeven to Courtney Cruz and Charlotte Stokely.

Stagg's images showcase confident females who are wild and rampant in front of the camera. True to the traditional style of American erotic photography. An expression of freedom and liberty, attributes that burn inside of all us. Nothing is off-limits in this truly enticing, daring and provocative collection. With more hotness at every page turn, this book is a true pleasure!
