Editorial Review

From Library Journal

In this difficult but rewarding book, psychologist Palmer explicates a complex system of personality typology derived from an ancient Sufi tradition and later used by the occult teacher Gurdjieff. This system, the Enneagram of personality types, is further clarified by comments from students and psychiatric patients. Students of self-realization techniques should find the book intriguing, although it is evident that to make progress in self-understanding, assistance from a teacher such as the author would be necessary. For large self-help collections. Jeanne S. Bagby, Tucson P.L., Ariz.
