Editorial Review

From the Publisher

This comprehensive world history survey is one of the top texts in the market due to its prominent author team global scope and excellent comparative history. Special "world perspective" sections at the end of each chapter place events discussed in the chapter in the context of developments elsewhere around the world during the same period. "Comparative perspective" essays examine different issues from a cross cultural point of view. This edition has further strengthened the coverage of Asian, African, American and Latin American history, adding a new chapter on past war Asia. The pedagogy to help students learn.
